2021-2022 Nassau Education Foundation Teacher Grant Scoring Rubric

General Information

Questions Prior to or During Submitting Online Grant Application

- If you have questions related to grant submission please contact Nassau Education Foundation Grant Committee Chair, Kim Lunt: klunt@nassaueducationfoundation.org or Executive Director, Abby Bean: abean@nassaueducationfoundation.org.
- Questions about project specifics will not be answered. Applicants should follow the criteria in the scoring rubric.

Grant Funding Cycle

- Grants are for the 2020-2021 school year.
- Funds should be spent between Monday, July 20, 2020 and Friday, October 9, 2020.
- If funds are for a project or materials that will not be paid for by October 9th please specify in the application (e.g., field trips, subscriptions, professional development).
- Grantees that require more time to spend funds should contact Abby Bean: abean@nassaueducationfoundation.org.

Grant Scoring Process

- Members of the Nassau Education Foundation Grant Committee reader panel will score all qualified grant applications.
- Each application will be independently scored by at least three panelists.
- A moderator will meet with grant readers to review their scores.
- The total scores from each reader will be added up and divided by three to determine an average score.
- The three highest scoring grants from each school will be awarded provided they meet all criteria and funds are available.
- After the top scoring grants from each school have been distributed, awards will continue in rank order until the Nassau Education Foundation 2020-2021 grant funds are depleted.

Grant Disqualifications

The following will likely disqualify a grant application:

- Grants that don't demonstrate that they enhance or support existing curriculum.
- Grants submitted for prohibited items, such as food, furniture and incentives.
- Grants submitted for technology that are not approved by the technology department.
- Grants that can't be paid for in one school year.
- Grants that are for items/services/professional development that already have allocated district funding.

Questions for Grantees

- If the Nassau Education Foundation Grant Committee has questions related to a grant application, they should contact the committee chair, Kim Lunt, who in turn will contact school or district staff for clarification.
- Grant readers will not contact teachers, school staff or Nassau County School District staff. Only Committee Chair Kim Lunt will contact them.

Unfunded Grants - If a grant remains unfunded after all NEF funds are distributed, it may be posted on the Find It, Fund It website.
